

February 22, 2022

Golden Rudraksha Awards – 2022

Seven faculty members and non-teaching staff members of Shoolini University were awarded The Golden Rudraksha Award 2022 at a function on Friday. The annual awards have been instituted to recognise the dedicated faculty and staff members who do their work with utmost sincerity and commitment. The award winners are selected through an independent process which includes a combination of student votes, eUniv analytics, and executive votes. Prof. Sourabh Kulshrestha, Dean of Research and Development, received the award for Best Leadership. He was followed by runners-up Mrs. Poonam Nanda, Dean Student Welfare, and Prof. Kuldeep Chand Rojhe, Dean of Management Sciences. The other seven finalists were Mr. Ajay Khanna, Prof. Anuradha Sourirajan, Prof. Kesari Singh, Brig. SD Mehta, Dr. Pankaj Vaidya, Prof. Rohit Goyal and Prof. Deepak Kapoor.

The prize distribution ceremony was attended by Chancellor Prof. PK Khosla, President Mrs. Saroj Khosla, and Pro-Chancellor Mr. Vishal Anand, who felicitated and congratulated the winners. Ms. Avnee Khosla and Dr. Ashoo Khosla were also present at the function. Chancellor Prof PK Khosla spoke on the occasion, saying that these awards encourage employees to work with dedication and determination throughout the year.

Mrs. Saroj Khosla (Chair), Dr. Ashoo Khosla, Prof. YS Negi, and Mr. MD Sharma served on the judging panel that chose the winners. Dr. Kamal Kant Vashishta and Mrs. Ashoo Khosla oversaw organising the award ceremony. The event concluded with a cultural program by the students at the university.

Number of participants: - 182

A group photograph of the winners of the various categories of Golden Rudraksha Award

A photograph of the group dance after the felicitation of prizes

A group song being presented by Nihit, Yogeshwari and team

P. Randa

DEAN STUDENT WELFARE
Shoolini University of Biotechnology
and Management Sciences
Solon (H.P.)-173212