DIALECTICUSS: Himalayan Literary Forum

The Chitrakoot School of Liberal Arts hosted an event as part of their renowned “DIALECTICUSS: Himalayan Literary Forum” on September 22, 2023. Ms. Chetna Keer, a novelist, columnist, and creative writing coach, served as the keynote speaker, discussing “The Three Important Components of Writing.”

Ms. Keer explored the essential elements of writing—methods, madness, and mysticism—which she employs in creating her characters. She also emphasized the broader landscape of literary expression and communication skills, advocating for a return to foundational principles—a perspective well-received by the audience. Reflecting on her journey to becoming an author, Ms. Chetna shared her experiences of starting as a high school columnist and her passion for weaving suspense into her narratives.

Mr. Hemant K. Sharma, Assistant Professor at Chitrakoot School of Liberal Arts, introduced the significance and mission of DIALECTICUSS, underscoring its role in promoting intellectual discourse and fostering a deeper appreciation for literary arts.

Dr. Purnima Bali, Head of Chitrakoot School of Liberal Arts, welcomed the attendees and introduced Ms. Chetna Keer. The session commenced with a dialogue between Ms. Keer and Prof. Dhar, a faculty member at Chitrakoot School of Liberal Arts, exploring various facets of creative writing.

Dr. Siddarth Dadhwal extended gratitude to all participants, including speakers, organizers, and the audience, for their contributions to the event.
