Why do I want to teach you about understanding your own emotions ?

- Emotional setbacks are the hardest to move on with.
- A lot of us feel that we cannot control our own emotions, hence we cannot control situations at hand. For eg: anger, sadness, dealing with loss, etc.
- Understanding your own emotions, will empower you with how to deal with them, which in turn helps you deal with any situation in a more logistic way. This helps you create objective solutions out of subjective feelings.
- Do you want to learn how to be empowered in a way where you are able to overcome your weaknesses? Where you can use your emotions as strengths? and where you can develop a deeper understanding of other people's emotions too?
