

April 25, 2022Story Telling for School Kids

Shoolini University organised its second literature festival with a galaxy of authors and other delegates participating in discussions spread over three days. Over 40 delegates attended the sessions on the campus, and several others from across the country and abroad joined online. The 2nd Shoolini literature festival featured an impressive line-up of speakers, including Mr. Devdutt Pattanaik and Mr. Allen Sealy. The festival was inaugurated by Dr. PK Bansal, Vice-Chancellor, Maharishi Markandeshwar University Solan. "Spin-the-Tale," a short storytelling competition open to public and students, was held in the opening session. Team Raabta members from Delhi hosted the same in the Cineplex of the university. The students were taught how to mould a story out of a scratch. The competition was won by Apoorva Mangain of D.A.V. College, Chandigarh. The consolation award went to Aviral Aswan, D.A.V. College Chandigarh, Ranjit Kumar, Shoolini University, and Vidushi Gupta, Punjab University. The story telling session was loved by all the participants and the audience present.

No. of students participated – 94A participant telling a story in Cineplex

Two of the participants performing a skit on the stage as a part of their performance

A group photograph of the audience of the show at Cineplex

A group of participants performing on the stage

Another group of participants performing on the stage

A team performing on the stage

P. Wanda
DEAN STUDENT WELFARE
Shoolini University of Biotechnology and Management Sciences
Solon (H.P.)-173212