

EXCHANGE AGREEMENT Between
NATIONAL CHENG KUNG UNIVERSITY and
SHOOLINI UNIVERSITY

In recognition of the mutual benefits derived from scholarly interaction, the National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan and Shoolini University, India agree to establish a student exchange agreement beginning on the date of its signing by the authorized representatives of the two institutes.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, “home” institute shall mean the institute at which the student intends to graduate, and “host” institute shall mean the institute that has agreed to accept the student from the home institute.

Semester or academic year shall normally refer to the period relevant to the host institute.

2. PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

The general purpose of this Agreement is to establish educational relations and cooperation between the two participating institutes in order to promote academic linkages and to enrich the understanding of the culture of the two countries concerned.

The purpose of exchange of faculty members is to promote collaborative research and other educational developments, and to further mutual understanding.

The purpose of each student exchange is to enable students to enroll in subjects for credit at the host institute that can be applied toward their degrees at their home institute.

3. STUDENT EXCHANGES

(1) NUMBER

Each institute is prepared to annually send students and receive the equivalent number in exchange. Normally, each institute shall provide for a maximum of 2 places per semester, equivalent to 4 places per year for this Agreement.

(2) PARITY

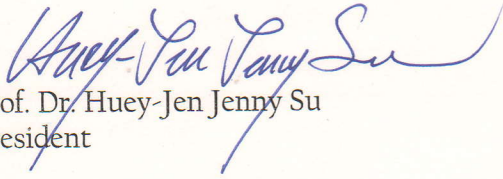

While parity in the number of exchanges is the goal, the institutes recognize that it may not be possible in any given year of the exchange. Every effort will be made to achieve parity over a period of three academic years.

(3) QUALIFICATIONS

participating students who have commenced at either institute at the date of the termination to complete their approved course of study. If this Agreement is executed in more than one language, the English version shall control in the event of inconsistency in meaning or interpretation of terms.
